

October 2009 Grant Recipients

Additional Peer Mediation Training Materials	$108.90
Brimhall Elementary School- Diane Kaphing Purchase a DVD to accompany materials already used for peer mediators and to purchase “feeling” training cards.
Enhancing Critical Thinking Skills through Chess	$500.00
Brimhall Elementary School- Jake Kolden Purchase chess sets and instructional materials for 6 th grade students.
Kids Create	$1,500.00
Brimhall Elementary School- Marsha Filipiak Purchase equipment to be checked out from the library to expand student created media.
Keyboards in the Music Class	$2,159.80
Central Park and other elementary schools- Mindy Way-Johnson, Laura Sharp, Kathy Tunseth, Debbie Romero, Marina Liadova, Julie Zender and Linnea Marin To purchase piano keyboards and materials to teach basic piano skills during general music class.
Walk and Read Club	$1,500.00
Edgerton Elementary School- Rita Mills To purchase materials to start a “Walk & Read Club” for 4 th - 6 th Grade Students. Students in the club can check-out books on CD and listen to them while walking during recess.
Archaeology Residency	$2,000.00
Emmet Williams Elementary School- Carol Hawkins To purchase the Archaeology Residency program from the Science Museum of Minnesota.
Biztown: Junior Achievement	$1,875.00
Little Canada Elementary School- Carrie Pelkola, Becky Heinn and Kim Brown Provide classroom lessons and a trip for 4 th and 5 th Grade Students to Junior Achievement Biztown to learn how to work, earn money, etc.
Books on CD	$1,000.00
Little Canada Elementary School- Melissa Reid, Paula Freeman and Angela Beutz To purchase popular books and CD’s and CD players to listen to the books on to enhance reading and independence skills.
Five Document Cameras to Focus Attention and Learning	$2,400.00
Parkview Center School- Emily Bloomquist, Eli Eschenbauch, Gloria Honda, Roberta Mackiewicz and Ann Jacobs To purchase five SMART Document Cameras to enhance classrooms with SMART Boards. The document cameras allow teachers to project documents for all student to see.

Sixth Grade Band and Orchestra Masterclass	$1,660.00
Parkview Center School- Joe Churchich
Provide a Master Class where professional musicians work with orchestra students to increase retention and motivation in instrumental music.
SMART Document Camera y Espanol	$800.00
Parkview Center School- Roberta Hernandez Rasmussen
Purchase a SMART Document Camera for use in the Spanish Culture and Language program
Minnesota History Day Student Workshops	$1,000.00
Parkview Center School and Roseville Area Middle School- Erin Anderson and Greg Ueland
Provide funds to hire the staff of the Historical Society to come and explain themes, methodologies and rules for history day. Also work with student in small groups
Collaboration, Assessment and Podcasts in World Language Classrooms	$1,592.00
Roseville High School- Ivan Ayon, Lora Bergman, Marian Brezovec, David Brooks, Holly Comer Young, Cheryl McCabe, Kirsten Peterson, Amy Weigel and Connie Wilmes
Purchase digital voice recorders for self assessment and teacher feedback in World Language classes
RAHS Drama Department Wireless Microphone System Upgrade	$2,777.00
Roseville High School- Vienna Folliard and Brian Rohde
Purchase wireless microphone equipment to enhance the current wireless system used by the RAHS Drama Department.
An Everyday Science Experience: Minnesota Zoo Fieldtrip	$425.74
Roseville High School- Julie Sonneman
Provide funds for a fieldtrip to the Minnesota Zoo to observe Animal Behavior up close.
Smart Board	$1,200.00
Roseville High School: Dean Jilek and Jami Lercher
Purchase a smart board for use in choir classrooms at Roseville Area High School.
Technology Integration: wireless mice	$500.00
Roseville High School: Vanessa Maki
To purchase seven wireless mice for the Social Studies department to allow teachers to move anywhere in the classroom

February 2010 Grant Recipients

Mobile Technology Integration Project	$4300.00
Brimhall Elementary School- Kudjo Bosu
Purchase a powersync cart, 30 iPod Touches and a laptop computer to bring hand held technology to students and teachers

Reading Between the Lines: Linking Literacy with Technology	$2,422.00
Falcon Heights Elementary School- Kristi Wobbema
Purchase digital camera and equipment to get students and staff involved in a creative school-wide project that links reading, art and technology.
High Low Books	$1,500.00
Little Canada Elementary School- Deanna Anderson and Jodi Seifert
Purchase books of high interest, low readability for struggling readers.
Literacy Bags	$600.00
Little Canada Elementary School- Jackie Harmon and Patty Grossen
Provide books and literacy activities for 1 st graders and their families that will supplement and support student learning.
WALK Club (We Are Literate Kids)	$855.96
Little Canada Elementary School- Melanie Houff
To purchase materials to start a “Walk” Club for students during recess time. They will walk with pedometers while listening to a Playaway during recess
Leveled Reading Resource Library	$1,000.00
Parkview Center School- Becky Ryan
Provide high interest, low readability books for struggling readers in her 7/8 Language Arts class.
Many Hands to Save our Lands Art Scrap Residency	$2,000.00
Parkview Center School- Tammy Gibson
To hire ArtScraps to work with staff to develop an artistic representation of AESOP theme “Many Hands To Save Our Lands”. Students will then use many different themes to create art with their hands focusing on a respect for the environment around them.
Six Document Cameras to Focus Attention and Learning	$1,600.00
Parkview Center School- Kate Boylan, Deb Obey, Holly Fjerstad, Lois Ostrem, Gail Hagen and Julianna Ertl
Purchase document camera’s to be used for interactive learning in 1 st and 2 nd grade classrooms.
Original play about Reading: “MPOSSBLE: Case of the Mssng Letters”	$1,000.00
Roseville Middle School- Margot Olsen
Hire playwright Tyler Olsen to write a play about reading. Middle Schools students would produce and perform the play.
RAMS World Drumming Class	$1,000.00
Roseville Middle School - Julie Zender
Funds will help with the purchase of a World Drumming Kit, supplies and training for new World Drumming class at RAMS.
Lower reading level books Gr 7 Career Unit	$340.00
Roseville Middle School- Linda Gallus, Julie Levine and Mary Cay Pepin

Purchase lower level reading materials based on careers the 7th grade students want to research for Family and Consumer science class.

Balanced Reading, Better Reading	$2,500.00
Roseville High School- Martha Mason Miller and Kelly Tennison Purchase half of the materials needed to support implementation of a balanced literacy program for ELL students at RAHS.
Hearts Against Hunger: Hunger Banquet	$570.00
Roseville High School- Students Purchase supplies for a hunger banquet to increase understanding of hunger and poverty issues
Finding the Next Lance Armstrong	$1,500.00
Roseville High School- Gwen Thielke and Allison Axness Provide 15 new bicycles to add to the 12 th grade physical education class. The 12 th grade physical education class helps seniors understand the many ways to stay active in the real world.
Vernier LabQuest Proeware	$1,059.00
Roseville High School- Ed Murray and Kathy Mielke Purchase 4 charging stations and 8pH sensor probes to add to the Vernier LabQuest data collections devices that are currently being used.
Flexible Adult Mannequins for Forensics Crime Scenes	$1,750.00
Roseville High School- Kathy Mielke Purchase 2 flexible mannequins to use as “victims” in crime scenes to provide multiple types of evidence that students will in turn collect and examine.
Benchtop Autoclave for Science	$3,895.00
Roseville High School- Kathy Mielke and Chris Ploetz Purchase an autoclave that will used to grow bacteria and yeasts as well as sterilizing tools for various AP Biology labs and to sterilize bacterial waste generated through such labs.
Electronic balances for Biology classes	$684.00
Roseville High School- Laura Erickson Purchase electronic balance sets for biology classes at RAHS.
Video Productions Enhancements	$3,495.00
Roseville High School: Gregg Martinson Purchase a high end video camera and a camcorder for use in the RAHS Video Production Society group and in the video production class.

